O R D E R

On September 19, 2005, the Complainant, Joseph Harold Durbin (“Mr. Durbin”), filed a complaint against American Cellular Corporation d/b/a Cellular One (“American Cellular”). American Cellular filed its answer on October 20, 2005. The Commission propounded data requests to Mr. Durbin and American Cellular on July 24, 2006. American Cellular’s response indicated that Mr. Durbin was no longer a customer of American Cellular.¹ Mr. Durbin did not respond to the data requests by August 8, 2006 – the deadline for answering – and has not responded to the data requests in the intervening weeks.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Within 10 days of the date of this Order, Complainant shall file with the Commission his response to the July 24, 2006 data requests.

¹ See Response to Data Request No. 2.

2. If no such filing is received within the time allowed herein, the complaint shall be dismissed without prejudice and this case shall be closed.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 29th day of August, 2006.

By the Commission
